

We live in agitated times. The U.S. has an administration that has been instrumental in chipping away our civil liberties and rights, not only as American Citizens, but also as Global Citizens and Humans of Planet Earth. The U.S. is occupying numerous countries and territories, the most recent occupation being that of Iraq. Global Warming is becoming increasingly an issue glaring us in the face. Workers rights are being trampled upon and basic human needs are being ignored.

But with Agitation comes Agitatin'. And that's what we aim to do here at The Agitator.

Contributing authors will post articles that invoke thought, discussion, question and debate. Look for a blog to be implemented from the site in the near future so that readers can respond to the articles posted at The Agitator.

We hope that more than anything the written words will inspire you to get up, get out, shout out and take a stand.

So what are you waiting for? Get out there and Agitate!
